

IN OLD SOUTH MEETING HOUSE.

THIRD ANNUAL CONGRESS OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION—GROWTH.

OF THE ORDER.

Boston, May 1.—The Old South Meeting House was invaded this morning by the sons and grandsons of the men who gave it its prominence in the annals of the Nation. They came from all parts of the country to take part in the sixth annual congress of the Sons of the American Revolution. The attendance was large and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

The congress was opened with a prayer by the Rev. Dr. C. A. Staples of Lexington, chaplain of the Massachusetts society, E. S. Barrett, of Concord, president of the Massachusetts society, and the address of welcome on behalf of the Nation, they came from all parts of the country to take part in the sixth annual congress of the Sons of the American Revolution. The attendance was large and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

The committee on organization reported that the receipts of the annual expenditure during the year have been $550, leaving a balance of $1,550 in the treasury.

The committee on organization reported that the receipts which had been remitted by the society extending to all the greetings of the old Bay States, and a welcome to their hearts and homes, to those historic buildings and fields of battle. He received with much particularity the history of the Old South Meeting House and the memorable incidents that occurred within its walls, with frequent allusion to the men and places in Massachusetts closely associated with the Revolution.

In responding for the congress General Porter thanked the Massachusetts society for its courtesy, and spoke of the pride the Sons of the American Revolution take in the noble ancestry of their Massachusetts brethren. He then told of the work that has been accomplished by the National Society since its organization in the way of securing legislation for the preservation of historic records, marking the graves of Revolutionary soldiers, erecting monuments on battle-fields, etc.

The Committee on Credentials reported that 104 delegates were present, including Miles T. Phillips, of Virginia, son of a soldier who was present at the storming of Stony Point, on the Hudson.

The report of Secretary General Franklin Murphy showed that new societies have been formed in Montana and Utah during the last year, and that there has been a large increase in membership in all the States where societies exist.

Registrar General A. Howard Clark presented his annual report. After telling of the organization of the society, he said that during the year 1236 new members have been enrolled. There are now thirty-one State societies, with the following membership in those named: Connecticut, 86; Massachusetts, 229; New York, 533; District of Columbia, 41; Minnesota, 23; Illinois, 16; New Jersey, 22; Vermont, 22; Maine, 28; Montana, 21; Utah,
